Description:	Project Vision: Planning for a Sovereign, Sustainable Future Paiute Pathways to Sovereignty is a visionary plan to secure the Moapa Band's future by empowering its youth. Through partnerships with the Moapa Valley School District, Bureau of Indian Education (BIE), and regional colleges (e.g., University of Nevada, Las Vegas; Nevada State College), this five-year program will equip 50-75 youth with the cultural pride, leadership skills, and practical expertise to lead their tribe and cultivate their 75,000 acres for self-sufficiency. By weaving Paiute values into every activity, the program ensures youth become stewards of their land and legacy. This is not just education—it's a deliberate investment in the tribe's survival, and your funding will make it a reality.
